- Eating healthy snacks
- Drop-ins welcome
- FREE!

A message from facilitator Brooke Coleman:

“I’m excited to share the lovely Village School preschool space with you and your young ones. I love the emerging movement, creativity, and expression of young children and the growing and changing relationships with their adults. I’m a parent, nurse, midwife and educator. We offer this opportunity to connect with young families, play with our kids and talk with other parents and caregivers.”
